A Moment For You

You have so many reasons to be proud of yourself.

You work hard and get tons done. You think of others, and more often than not, put them first. When someone or something needs your time or attention, you give it.

You solve problems, big and small. You look to always make things better. You move past the mistakes you make, even laugh at some. You forgive the mistakes of others. If you complain at all it is not nearly as much as you deserve to. You always find a reason to smile.

And thanks to you, others can too.

Congradulate yourself, you are a great person.

God Bless You Always

-Dot Harbin
